Sound of '62

The sounds, the sights of a school year, friends talking, teachers lecturing, lockers slamming, people passing in the hallways, then the quiet and deserted hall as classroom doors close—all these recall the year past. The sound of enthusiasm from the athletic field, an orchestra tuning up in the music room, a student speaker practicing his lines, a steady hum of talk at noon time—what did the year sound like to you? With pictures this 1962 Barrister interprets the sight and sound of Marshall.

Administration

At the time of this writing "the sound of '62" is about to be heard in the clamor of horns, bells, and whistles ushering in the new year. Whether these sounds will continue as paeans of joy for you throughout '62 or become doleful dirges will depend very much upon your attitude, ambition, and determination.

The times demand physical fitness, intellectual development, useful skills, and unswerving loyalty to American ideals. This school has endeavored to assist you in the acquisition of these, but the proper application of them is up to you.

May the sound of '62 be harmonious and triumphant for all sons and daughters of John Marshall High School.

SENIORS

Sound Off

WINTER '62 CLASS OFFICERS: Sandra Roche, Vice President; Brenda Izumi, Recording Secretary; Walter Hittelman, President; Gingi Yew, Treasurer; Inta Paegle, Corresponding Secretary.

The graduates of Winter '62 chose as their class name the Veritans, meaning the truth seekers. Under the leadership of their class officers, Walter Hittelman, Brenda Izumi, Inta Paegle, Sandra Roche, and Gingi Yew, this class has strived to live by the motto, "The truth shall set us free."

The Veritans began their successful senior year with a sweater-day luncheon at which the Seniors first appeared in their aqua and grey sweaters. Next they chalked up a rousing victory in the volleyball game played between the Senior A's and the Senior B's. The Senior Prom, decorated in a tropical South Sea island atmosphere and complete with Tiki gods, fish nets, ferns, and palm trees, provided an enjoyable conclusion to a memorable semester.

Thalians

Thalians, meaning friendship, was the class name chosen by the summer graduates of 1962. This meaning was incorporated in their class emblem and is symbolized by the spreading flower petals showing the spread of friendship throughout the world. The class colors were black and white, with a torch of green on the sweaters.

Senior semester holds many fond memories for the Thalians, including such exciting activities as the senior sports night, senior breakfast, the unforgettable senior prom, and grad night, final activity of the year. However, social activities are not the only memories held by the Thalians. To them Marshall has meant much more than activities and social affairs, and this feeling can be expressed by Laddie Margolin, class president: "Our class has had more than just fun in our last semester. As we complete our secondary education we embark on a new and hopefully prosperous life. Marshall has kindled an inner fire in each of us to become intelligent and active citizens—for this we are indebted."

SUMMER '62 CLASS OFFICERS: Dennis Phillips, treasurer; Carla Swinhart, social secretary; Laddie Margolin, president; Kathy Engelmohr, secretary; Bill Hunsucker, vice-president.

Bruce Wheaton,
Boys' Vice President

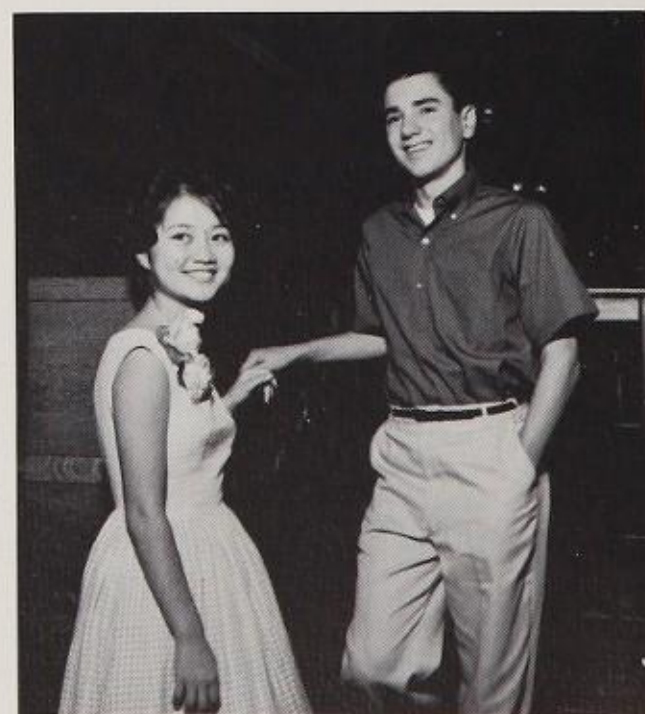

I'd like to express my sincere thanks to you, the student body. As Student Body President not only did I come to realize the opportunities and challenges of such an office, but I also found that teamwork was the basis for our accomplishments this semester.

As teamwork was necessary in bringing to Marshall the Northern League Football Championship, it was also necessary in coordinating a semester we could be proud of—one full of honor, high spirit, and well received activities. Each student organization at Marshall had its part. On the football team every player has his assignment; in the same way each student organization was responsible for a definite part of this semester's goal.

When NFL brought Marshall a debate trophy, the football team received the Northern League Championship, or the CSF won the quiz-down for us, Marshall was being honored, helping to bring about a successful semester we could be proud of. When we were working in separate fields such as speech, athletics, and scholarship, and yet strove for the same goal, a successful school year, we worked as a team. Because we used this same teamwork, bringing honor to Marshall, raising spirit, and coordinating activities, a successful semester was had. Once more I'd like to thank everyone for the opportunity of serving a school that has proved itself so well through teamwork

Summer 1962

There are many things to take into consideration when judging a high school. One must consider the ability of the students. The individual and combined potential of a student body plays a significant role in raising the morale of any high school. The teachers and administrators who instruct and guide the students constitute an important part of school. A strong relationship between faculty and students is certainly essential in a high school. I think, though, that the most significant factor to take into consideration when judging a high school is the general behavior of the students themselves.

The student body can make that school a pinnacle of prestige and respect or can completely reduce its sense of worth. In judging this high school by the students, I can honestly say that its reputation is one of superiority. I humbly acknowledge my pride in being the student body president of John Marshall High School.—Mike Lauletta

Leadership class, which meets every day, is composed of student body officers, leaders and presidents of major organizations, senior membs of student council, and presidents of the three upper division classes. This is the only organization of its kind here at Marshall, and it is the executive branch of the student body. People in Leadership represent all phases of student life and try to plan activities that a majority of the student body will enjoy. To help in this, the class operates three standing committees: activities, elections, and assembly. They are responsible for almost all of Marshall's activities.

The student body has enjoyed many new activities with Mr. Weymann as sponsor of the Leadership class.

With the sounds of our first victory still ringing in our ears, we celebrated at a kick-off dance.

Do You Recall?

The sounds of sixty-one and sixty-two were overflowing with spirit. This was a year of surfers, bubble hair styles, the twist, Soupy Sales, and senior class rivalry. The little everyday events, as well as sports nights, assemblies, and noon rallies, all contributed to a memorable year. It is these memories we are endeavoring to recall through words and photographs. Do you remember, for instance . . .

"My name . . . Eric Van Young??"

The spirit and enthusiasm which mounted throughout the year first became evident as the students rallied to back our fall activities. New boys and their dads attended a Father and Son Night, with refreshments and athletic demonstrations. The Halloween sports night was met with a capacity crowd. The athletic teams, which were already showing signs of their superior ability, were presented at a sports rally. The A-11 class held its dance outdoors in the arcade, with the traditional Sadie Hawkins dance in the Girls' gym the following Friday.

November found the Thespians preparing for their presentation of the comedy, "Room For One More." Movies of the Mayflower II were featured at a Thanksgiving assembly. The Girls' League sponsored a canned food drive, collecting food for needy families. Senior class rivalry, although not always beneficial, nevertheless contributed to the memories of the winter semester.

American Field Service students salute the Marshall student body

Soon we shall leave the United States, and this interesting and valuable year will belong to memory. With delight and gratefulness we remember the warm welcome at Marshall and all the friendships and help during the year. You made it possible for us to get to know you and to live and learn with you. You gave us the experience of getting acquainted with a new country and its people. We tried to make our countries known to you and to represent them. How far we succeeded will be decided by you. We shall take with us on our way home many new impressions and ideas, and a truer meaning of the word "understanding," accompanied by a feeling of gratitude and obligation toward our American friends.

To give this experience a lasting value in our countries, we shall wholeheartedly and with all our strength stand up for the ideas of this program in which you have participated so magnificently: to make friends and to promote a better understanding and goodwill among people.

1961-1962 was a year of hard work, studying, victorious football games, exciting track meets, assemblies, sports rallies, sports nights, and most of all, a year filled with memories of a great school and the knowledge and joy it brought. For the Senior A's January 25 and June 14 meant graduation, and for new R-10's it meant the beginning of three of the best years of their lives at the best high school—JOHN MARSHALL.

ORGANIZATIONS

Accent On Interests

ORCHESTRA — Marshall's orchestra, the largest high school orchestra in Los Angeles, is under the direction of Mr. Halford, music department chairman. Mr. Halford states concerning this year's group, "We lost almost half of our membership at graduation last June and had to replace them with B-10's. It is amazing to see how far these young musicians have come in less than a year." The orchestra's two main performances were at the Christmas show in the fall semester and at the Spring Concert in the summer semester. The remodeling of the auditorium in spring presented difficulties for rehearsals; however, the members endured this hardship gladly, knowing that the remodeling would make for better facilities next year.

BAND — A familiar sight on the football field was Marshall's precision band. Under the direction of Mr. Halford and Drum Major Nick Engler, the band provided the crowd with a variety of unusual and colorful half-time performances. Leading the cheering sections with their spirited music, the band sparked the team to victory. They should be proud of the fine music they provided for the student body throughout the year.

MUSIC LETTERMEN — Marshall's Music Lettermen, founded in 1960, are under the direction of Mr. Halford. The purpose of the club is to give recognition to outstanding music students. One of their main activities is their semi-annual banquet, at which they receive their hard earned awards.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB — The Girls' Glee Club, Marshall's newest music group, is fast becoming a popular organization. Their purpose is to better acquaint girls with choral singing and harmony. Much credit goes to their sponsor, Mrs. Williams, for her work with this group.

CONCERT CHOIR — Marshall's largest vocal group is the Concert Choir. Under the direction of Mrs. Williams, they have traditionally participated in the Spring Concert and Christmas program, as well as a number of assemblies. The purpose of the group is to enhance the knowledge and experience of the members in the technique of choir singing.

DRILL TEAM — Drill Team contributed greatly to half-time enjoyment at football games this year. Performing intricate drills such as a rocket, a guitar, a sleigh, and a salute to our two exchange students — a windmill that moved and a German stein that did the polka—the one hundred fifty girls showed precision brought about by excellent leadership. Sue Knudson and Robin Marshall, as co-company commanders, with the aid of twelve able leaders, put the girls through their paces. As the new sponsor this year, Mrs. Lynn assisted the girls in every way to make this past season a successful one.

VOLUNTEERS — The Volunteers is a Marshall service organization comprised entirely of tenth graders who have volunteered to serve their school. When a Marshall event is scheduled, the Volunteers have two jobs. They first design colorful, eye-catching posters, which are placed in the show cases and halls to advertise the event. Then they are present on the day of the event to sell refreshments. This procedure is carried out for sports nights, track meets, football games, and many other school functions. A great number of these hard working students go on to join the eleventh grade service club, the Continentals.

The Continentals are a very busy group seen around Marshall. This eleventh grade service organization functions under the responsible guidance of Mr. Goddard, their sponsor. The Continentals work in the halls, in the cafeteria, in the student store, and in the library. Judy Quon served as Continental president in the winter semester and David Charlebois headed the organization in the summer semester. Congratulations are in order to the Continentals for a successful year.

Generally they receive their orders from their sponsor, Mr. Caveney. Some of the duties which they have inherited from past Minute Men are taking care of the flags and military mail, taking charge of the chains at football games, sponsoring a sports night, and ushering at assemblies. Through the years they have maintained the high honor and tradition of Marshall.

They serve at administrators' dinners and the Lettermen's banquet, work at the switchboard, in the counselor's office, in the attendance office, and in the main office. It is no wonder that their name is considered synonymous with service.

The Lettermen's Club is made up of athletes from the many sports at Marshall. Presidents for this year were Joe Reyna for the winter semester and Alan Kakita for the summer semester. Besides showing outstanding work in sports, the Lettermen serve the school by ushering at the assemblies and keeping general good order at school gatherings. The highlight of their activities each semester is the traditional Lettermen's banquet. The big blue Lettermen's sweaters seen everywhere on campus symbolize outstanding participation in competitive sports. These Lettermen deserve the recognition they receive.

Miss Kan is co-sponsor of this group. The students ready themselves for tournaments by speaking in homerooms to publicize school functions, by announcing sports events, and by sponsoring an annual pay assembly.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA — Modern business majors learn about opportunities awaiting them in the business world in this organization. This is a nation-wide organization composed of high schools throughout the United States. At many of their monthly meetings they have guest speakers who discuss job opportunities. Mrs. Hallinan and Mr. Wachs, their sponsors, planned field trips to businesses, where the members learned the functions of an office staff.

MENTORS—Marshall's Mentors are students who are planning to become educators. The club gives them an opportunity to explore their field of endeavor by arranging field trips to schools in the area. During the past year the Mentors visited several elementary and junior high schools. Mr. Neef, sponsor, also arranged for the club to attend conferences for future teachers at neighboring colleges. Speakers informed them at these conferences of the great demand for teachers and of the many benefits of a teaching career.

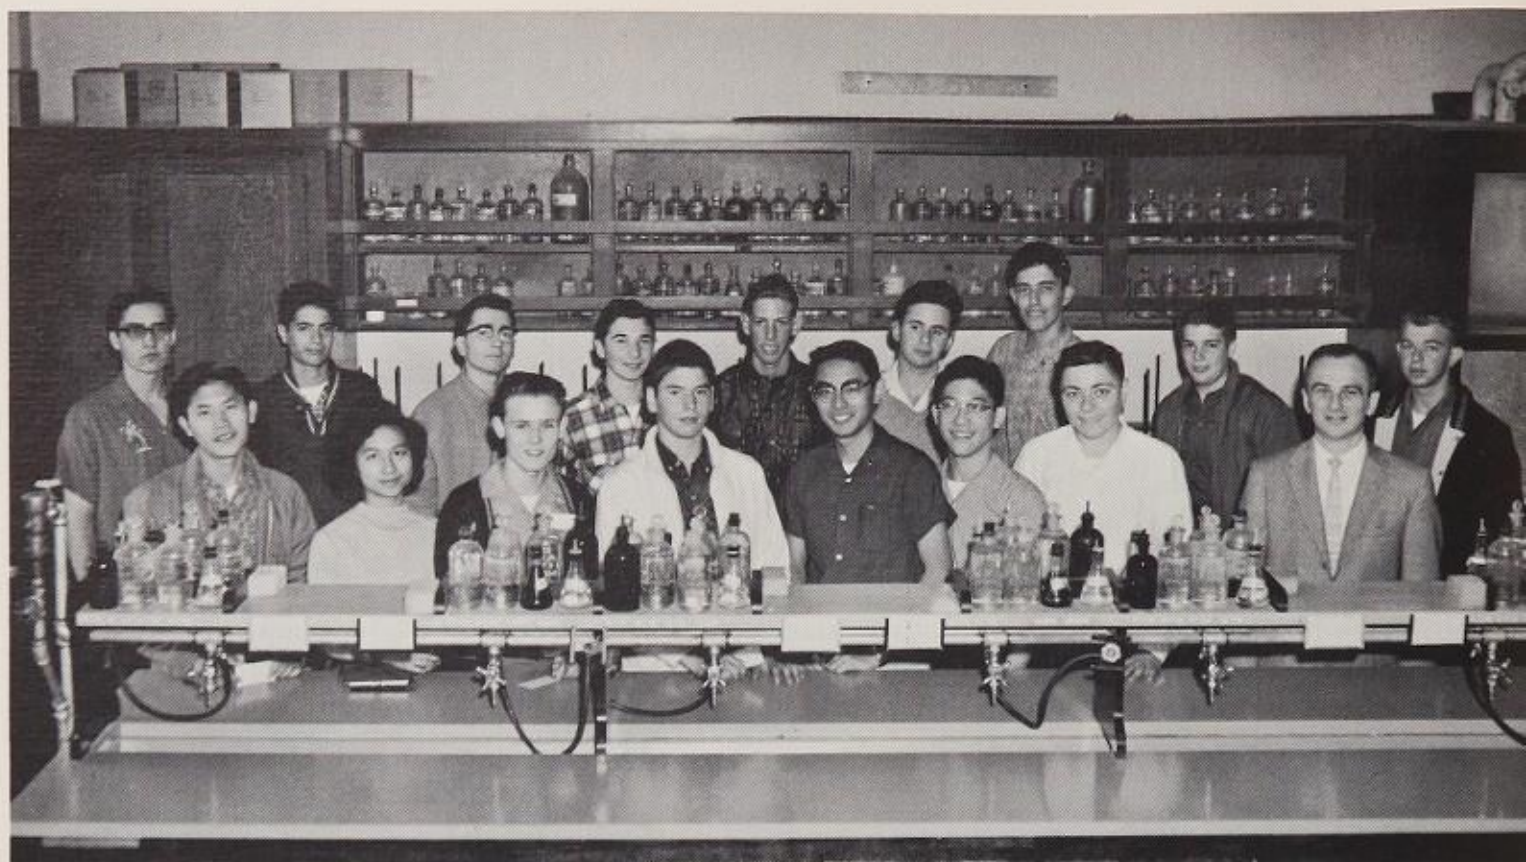

SPORTS NIGHT BOARD—The Sports Night Board plans a schedule of sports nights and takes charge of activities on those nights. This year there have been several well attended sports nights, providing ping pong, volley ball, dancing, and refreshments for Marshall students. Mr. Valdivia is the genial sponsor of this activity.

The purposes of the club are to find out various opportunities in the field of medicine, to become acquainted with community health services, and to participate in school health programs. Meetings are held once a month, and members also take field trips and hear guest speakers. Mrs. Swinney, the school nurse, is the sponsor.

ELECTRONICS CLUB — Students interested in electronics discuss this field with others in Marshall's Electronics Club. The members of this organization give talks on the theories of electronics and study the functions of various equipment. Their sponsor, Mr. Walker, answers questions concerning the many movies which are shown to the members during their meetings.

Their field trip to a Mexican restaurant proved to be of great value in increasing the word power of the students. The club helped make decorations for the International Banquet, and had an enthusiastic turnout that night.

FRENCH CLUB—The French Club was very busy this year at Marshall. They planned many dramatizations under the supervision of Mrs. Keshishian, and presented one of these skits at the International Banquet. LATIN CLUB—Sponsored by Mrs. Agulia, this club enjoyed one of the most active years of its career. The elected president led the members, who were first treated to a field trip to the Griffith Park Observatory, where they heard a lecture on the application of Latin to astronomy. Next the members of the advanced class joined with the other language clubs to stage the International Banquet. In the spring semester the members attended the Junior Classical League State Convention held at El Segundo High School.

GERMAN CLUB—Organized a year ago last fall, the German Club is fast becoming one of Marshall's most popular interest clubs. Mr. Lanak, the club's sponsor, has helped in planning skits and other activities for the members. They attended the annual International Banquet and were welcomed with as much enthusiasm as some of Marshall's older language organizations.

THESPIANS — The glamour of stage lights keeps this group working hard. Mrs. Crawley sponsors the drama organization. "Room for One More" and "Ask Any Girl" were two of the plays they presented this year, and plans included several others. They are an enthusiastic group that puts in long hours in rehearsals and final performances.

Mr. Kadotani now sponsors both these groups. They have really brought the sound of '62 into life this year.

These groups plan the activities for the year and the semi-annual C.H.S. - C.S.F. assembly. Mr. Holtfrerich is the sponsor of the honor society and Miss Anderson sponsors the scholarship federation.

CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION AND CITIZENSHIP HONORARY SOCIETY LIFE MEMBERS — Life membership in the Citizenship Honorary Society is acquired by those members of the club who qualify for membership for five semesters, two of these during the twelfth grade. They must also have been a member of one of Marshall's service organizations. In order to be eligible for membership for just one semester a student must have eight E's, no U's, no F's, and a merit score of at least ninety-eight on the semester report card. The California Scholarship Federation also awards life membership to its outstanding members. The coveted award is given to those students who achieve membership in the club for four semesters, one of these being in the twelfth grade.

CITIZENSHIP HONORARY SOCIETY — This organization strives to recognize students who consistently have an excellent citizenship record. In order to become a member a student must have received eight or more E's in character traits and no unsatisfactory marks, and must have a merit score at all times of not less than 95. If a student qualifies for membership for four semesters, with two of these semesters in the twelfth grade, he is entitled to Life membership. At the head of this group is the Executive Board, which is comprised of the officers and grade representatives. Mr. Holtfrerich is the sponsor of the Citizenship Honorary Society.

CALIFORNIA SCHOLARSHIP FEDERATION — The California Scholarship Federation is a state-wide scholastic honor society, whose members thrive on academic achievement. The coveted Life Member award is given to those students who qualify for membership for four semesters, one of these semesters being in their senior year. The difficulty of this is evident when it is realized that a student must acquire ten grade points in one semester in order to qualify for membership. A's earn three points, and B's earn one point.

EXCHANGE STUDENT COMMITTEE—Each year the Exchange Student Committee, under the supervision of Mrs. Anderson, sponsors a campaign to raise money to bring as many exchange students to Marshall as possible. An amount of six hundred and fifty dollars must be raised for each exchange student. Last year's Exchange Student Committee raised enough for two foreign students. Michael Stork came to us from Germany, and Willemina Van Klavern came from Holland. Hopes are high for two more foreign students next year.

Blue Tide Tells the News

BLUE TIDE—Marshall's weekly newspaper, the Blue Tide, is published by the sixth period journalism class. Their sponsor, Mr. Baron, has set up a rigorous work schedule: assignments on Monday, galley proofing on Tuesday, reporting on Wednesday, copy turned in on Thursday, and final organization and sent to print on Friday. The Blue Tide staff is a closely-knit, precision organization. Every member must do his job exactly according to the strict schedule in order to meet the Friday deadline. The student body is indebted to them for the fine work they have done in reporting the activities and functions of Marshall.

They keep activity cards in order, serve at school banquets, and aid the school in many ways. Though it is a relatively new group, it is regarded with as much honor and respect as some of the older organizations. The girls work their hardest because fewer can be chosen for Minute Maids.

Beginning their league competition, the Blue Tide rolled over Verdugo Hills 20-14 in a game highlighted by Rick Hornbeck's eighty-two yard touchdown run. After edging Lincoln 7-6, the team's first league defeat was given by Eagle Rock 27-13. Barristers then defeated over-rated Belmont 14-7, placing the team within half a game behind Eagle Rock in league standing. Barristers defeated Franklin 13-7, and following an upset victory of Lincoln over Eagle Rock, Marshall captured the Northern League trophy.

On a rain-soaked field at East Los Angeles Junior College in the first round of city competition, the Barristers gained a 25-6 victory over Garfield, Eastern League champions. The next round led to defeat at the hands of Manual Arts 31-6, ending the finest season Marshall has seen in years.

B FOOTBALL — By defeating grid rival Belmont, who for the past two years prevented the team from taking first, the B football team placed second in league, right after Eagle Rock. Coached by Mr. Winfield and Mr. Bogle, ten Barristers made the all-league roster: Co-captains Gary Roe and Richard Yoshino, James White, Eric Peterson, William Lifshin, Richard Garcia, Wayne Sasabe, and Allen Lefohn.

Ending the practice schedule with a two win and one loss record, the team started the league season in a stalemate with Verdugo Hills. Edging Lincoln 7 to 6, the Barristers were defeated by Eagle Rock 28 to 14. With the winning touchdown scored in the last minutes by Gary Roe, the B's defeated Belmont 12 to 7. Finishing the season with a 14 to 13 win over Franklin, the B's placed second with Verdugo Hills.

CROSS COUNTRY—This year's Varsity Cross Country had a very successful season. Coach Breckell provided a rugged training program for his squads, starting with calisthenics and ending with a run over the Griffith Park course, where all the home meets were held. With Captains Gomez and Farris, the Barristers were tied with Lincoln for second place, coming in behind Eagle Rock. Sporting a fine three win, two loss league record, the J.V. squad finished in third place. David Harris's excellent running ability enabled him to capture first place in league and city finals. For the first time in five years, the tenth grade team placed third.

TENNIS—The Marshall racket men in 1961 continued to add to their score of twenty league triumphs. Marshall still has title to a record of five all city championships. During practice competition in the 1962 season Marshall played three high schools, among them Glendale, a tough competitor. Marshall took two out of three, including Glendale, losing to Los Angeles, last year's city champion. The scores were 6-1, 5-2, 3-4. Top defenders this year are all returning lettermen. They are Joe Huey, a player who ranks in Southern California and is a city champion runner-up, and Richard Ortiz and Dennis Huey. Nyle Frank and Mark Taska handled the singles department for '62.

VARSITY — The varsity track men, suffering from the toll graduation took last June, had fewer successful outings this year. Although the Barristers are not league champions, fans were kept on their feet by the outstanding performances of Gordon Felice, high jump and hurdles, Ron Pangborne and Dave Harris, 100 and 220, Webster Guillory, 440, and Dave Browda, 880. Jerry Ferris and John Streatfeild held down the mile. Shot putters Vic Ruiz, Al Fisher, Bruce Chilstrom, and Alan Kakita turned in consistently fine performances in their field. High flying vault men Eric Peterson and Rick Hornbeck were sure points for Marshall.

Remarkable school spirit kept the boys in blue going all out throughout the season. Everything considered, it was an excellent season for the lawyers, who were guided by Mr. John Winfield and Mr. Jim Bogle.

B TRACK — The B squad fared well this season, led by all-league Dave Kast, who turned in outstanding times in the 660. The sprint standouts were Dave Dietz and Fred Isaack in 100, and first year man Armando Eason in 220. Dave Corrigan and Joe Valenzuela in the 1320 ran in every meet. The varsity will be proud of these upcoming tracksters next year. Coach Winfield and Coach Bogle also coach B and C track.

C TRACK — Spirit was the key to the C's success this year. Early season victories by a wide margin made the small hustlers a strong favorite for league laurels. Howard Korn in 100 and 660 compiled many points for his squad and has a great future. Howard Ornelas in 180 and Roy Quintanar, pole vault, were other leaders.

GYMNASTICS—Gymnasts had another excellent season, this year under the coaching of Mr. Contreras. Last year they were league champions, and after defeating strong Verdugo Hills this year, they were again looking forward to success.

Captain Dan Millman was high point man, averaging well over twenty points a meet. Dan's best events were free exercise, high bar, parallel bars, long horse, and his specialty tumbling. Bill Willey, the other captain, also scored high throughout the year on his four events. Rick Hornbeck, competing in free exercise, the parallel bars, long horse, and rings, was a high scorer. Horace Saavedra as a tenth grader was first man on the ropes with a quick 4.5 seconds. Other men contributing to the team's performance were Fred Hill, Raydell Kiker, Dan Porter, Ron Fuller, and Gabriel Trevizo.

Varsity

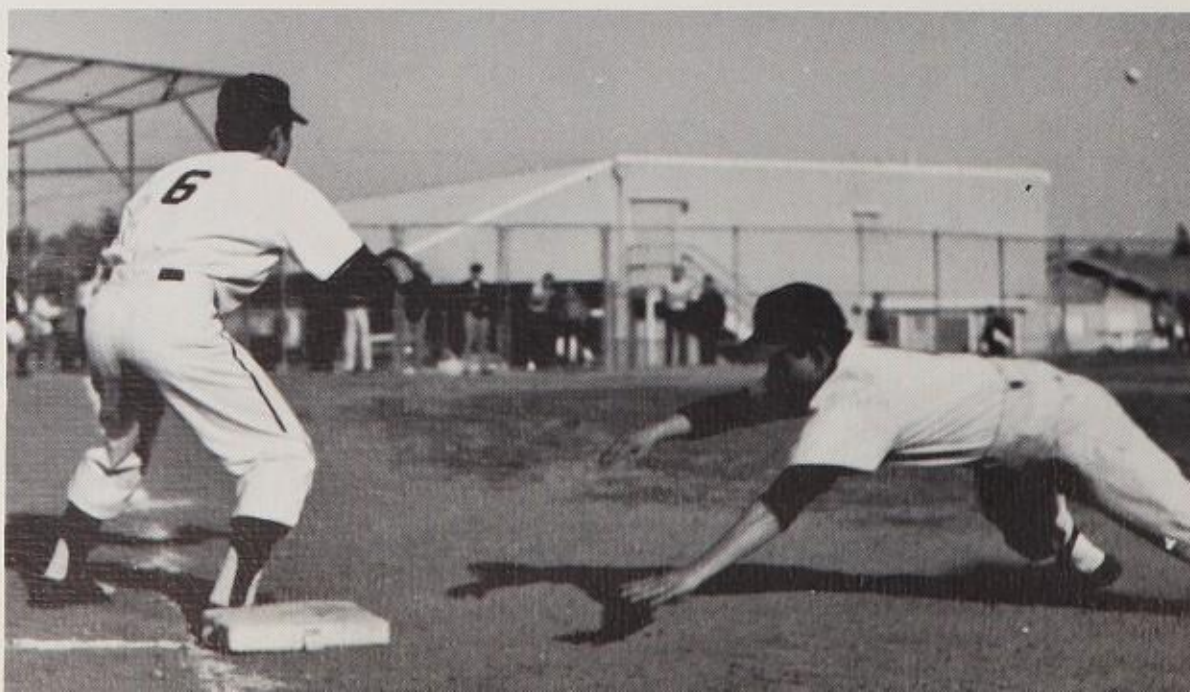

At the start of the baseball season Coach Dean Dill fielded an inexperienced team, Larry Perkins, Steve Odell, and Steve Tyler being the only returning men from last year's squad. After having most pre-season practice curtailed because of rain, the team opened the season with an impressive victory over Wilson. Other highlights of the season included Dave Celaya's one-hit shutout of Jordan and opening Northern League victory over Verdugo Hills. Elected captains were Steve Odell and Russ Woodworth. Other standouts included Phil Duran, Jeff McNeely, Rick Alden, and Danny Poppers. At press time Eagle Rock seemed to be the team to beat, with Franklin and Marshall fighting it out for second place and a trip to the Dorsey tournament.

Junior Varsity Baseball

With only three returning boys from last year's Junior Varsity, Coach Yeoman had his work cut out for him. They lost the practice games, but for the season opening team spirit was higher than ever. Long batting and infield workouts were held, and considerable time was spent with the pitchers. By the first league game it looked as though this had paid off. Marshall hitters completely rooted Verdugo Hills for a total of sixteen runs. Meanwhile Bob Trask held the Dons to three scratch runs.

The second league game wasn't as overwhelming as the first, but again Marshall hitters were consistent, and they beat Lincoln 11-10. Ted Milkoff pitched six and a fraction innings and Scott Gross finished it up. Outstanding hitters of the game were Rory Fitzpatrick and Richard Britto. Coach Yeoman was hoping for a league championship, but time would tell.

SWIMMING—This spring's team was one of the largest and most promising in Marshall history. It numbered sixty-five members, only a few of whom were returning lettermen. Co-captains Chuck Bell and Rick Mann, both free style swimmers, led the team. Outstanding performers were Mike Guyer, butterfly; Mike Raber and Rick Aleshire, free style; Bob Hooker and John Perlin, breast stroke; Danny Millman and John Rowe, diving; and in individual medley Craig Masuoka. Mr. Margucci coaches the aquatic stars. The early part of the season was highly successful, and at press time the varsity and B swimmers had lost no meets.

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association is one of Marshall's more active groups. Any girl at Marshall may join this organization regardless of the grade she is in. By paying the dues and attending regularly, a girl is entitled to take part in all club activities. They meet after school on their assigned days.

The Executive Board consists of the presidents and secretaries of the various clubs. Their sponsor is Miss Sarah Halowell.

BOWLING, FIRST ROW: B. Cadag, J. White, S. King, N. Kelne, L. Yoshino, C. Matsugawa, H. Ahlers, R. Guntli. SECOND ROW: S. Hoover, G. Mack, S. Thompson, J. Miyaji, M. Encinas, S. Igauve, J. Hagstedt, P. Cockrell, S. Giblin.

The spring semester offered six clubs to the girls at Marshall. The Badminton Club, under the supervision of Miss Halowell, had an enjoyable season because the girls learned this likable sport. Bowling, Marshall's newest group, has been a great success. Sponsored by Mrs. Swanson, the members meet on Wednesdays. Future Drill Team leaders assemble on Monday. Under the guidance of Miss Halowell they learn the techniques needed in order to present precision drills at football games. The advanced and beginning tennis teams are sponsored by Mrs. Lynn and Mrs. Swanson, respectively. The members of these two groups learn skills, the scoring system, and most of all the value of good sportsmanship. Mrs. Schade, modern dance instructor, teaches dramatic movements and dance techniques.

ADVANCED TENNIS, FIRST ROW: S. Lehrer, P. Hudson, D. Kwan, C. Liu, N. Homann, M. Pantaleo, J. Huey. SECOND ROW: W. Van Klaveren, D. Wurtz, C. Dixon, G. Mack, S. Thompson, A. Zeller, S. Budd.
